My dear Mrs Chapman

I thank you for your welcome little note. A line from one of our A.S. friends is always most welcome. Your cause lives deeply in our hearts. I am sure that it never will die in mind until the blessed day when there shall be no more slavery, may you, Mrs Garrison, F. Douglass & a host of your noble workers live to see it!

If you do not, I am sure that you will be glad to "spare off and be glad"

I am happy that you have safely received Lady Wyvern's beautiful picture; it will be again at your next ~~the~~ Exhibition. You did not in your last papers or letters make any particular allusion to Lady Wyvern's Picture which I should have suppose'd attracted, & besides her Father would be under obligations for praising them; — if you mentioned any

I wish you had been; she may be buried at the emphasis; if you have an opportunity perhaps you will do so.

If I can find & obtain contributions to the Liberty Bell, but fear. If you do not receive as good a box this year please to attribute it to the efforts we have had to make for the Fair, to any thing but diminished interest.

With best respects to Mr Garrison believe me to remain, dear Mr Estlin ever yours truly
Mary Carpenter
